Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-5, 13, and 14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Hagen et al (US 6,237,765). Regarding claims 1-5, see the Figs. where the claimed structure is shown. Regarding claim 13 and 14, the part of the handle that locks the cover to the container is the locking cover. The end of the handle which locks and makes up the locking cover is generally "L" shaped.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claim 12 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Hagen et al. Regarding claim 12, Hagen et al does not teach the metal handle with the plastic container. Official notice is taken that it is well known to employ metal in place of plastic and plastic in place of metal. It would have been obvious to employ metal in the handle of Hagen et al to provide for a strong and durable handle.

Art Unit: 3727

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 15-23 allowed.

Claims 6-11 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

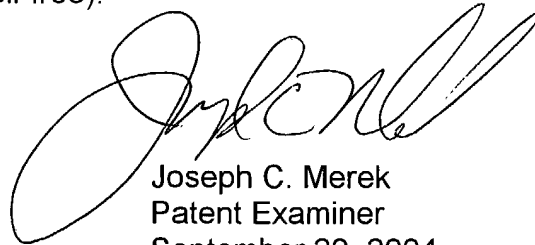

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Gustafson, Babin, Fiore, Schaffer, and Tarozzi et al are all cited for teaching containers with locking handles.
